Description

The Romanov Arena company is creating theatrical shows which are based on multi-genre.

The combination of circus and theatrical art, live vocals, contemporary ballet, original scenery, exclusive music make the projects unique.

Our performances are a harmonious synthesis of all, at first glance, contradictory, creative spheres.

The shows are interesting not only for children, but for their parents. After all, actors from the best Moscow theaters, winners of international festivals of circus art, participants of leading television projects take part in them.

Their skills will not leave you indifferent and will easily transfer any adult to the world of fairy tales. Sometimes the habitual suddenly changes, the unshakable crumbles like a house of cards and the walls of our reality start moving...

Then we understand that the space exists behind these walls. Enigmatic, mysterious, deep ... Perhaps we call it a fairy tale!

The founders of Romanov Arena, Ekaterina and Maxim Romanov, invite you to join their fabulous performances...

Rehearsal process

Romanov Arena rehearsals are always a creative and interesting process, as the artists of different genres take part in the show. The goal is to find the optimal combination and integration of theatre artists, vocalists and circus artists performances. The performers embody their interesting and bold ideas which eventually become part of new spectacles.

There is a comfortable environment with professional equipment, high quality sound and, the most important, nice homely atmosphere for the artists.
