WE ARE PROUD TO PRESENT
OUR NEW UNIQUE STAGE PLAY ON TOUR
2022-2023

The play centers on two characters, Melissa Gardner and Andrew Makepeace Ladd III.

Love Letters

is a play by A. R. Gurney that was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize for Drama

Using the epistolary form sometimes found in novels, they sit side by side at tables and read the notes, letters and cards – in which over nearly 50 years, they discuss their hopes and ambitions, dreams and disappointments, victories and defeats – that have passed between them throughout their separated lives.

The play features an addictive love story of the shared nostalgic memories, deep closeness, and missed opportunities of two lifelong, unlikely friends that has been touching audiences' hearts for decades.

The emotional and physical distance of this epistolary novel for the stage is ideal for Covid-era theatre, performed here with power and finesse.

The play is a performance favorite for busy name actors, for it requires little preparation, and lines need not be memorized.

Standard length 94 minutes with 20 min. intermission included.

Love Letters

life in words, a story in response to a story, frankness to frankness... A story of two destinies, a love story...

Downstage are two actors reading their letters to each other.

Everyone has a monitor on their desk with scrolling text on it.

In the artist's native language, viewers read subtitles in the audience's native language.
