

KINGDOM OF SHADOW

BY MOONLIGHT SHADOW THEATRE

WHAT IS PLASTIC SHADOW THEATRE?

Moonlight Shadow theatre is an original performance, a form of plastic theatre showing images and characters on the screen made with the shapes of human bodies. This is a unique genre that includes choreography, pantomime, acting and a sense of humor.

During the show audience witnesses magic of shadow theatre on the highest level: Moonlight shadow theatre takes basics from russian ballet school and combines traditions with modern choreography and acrobatics.

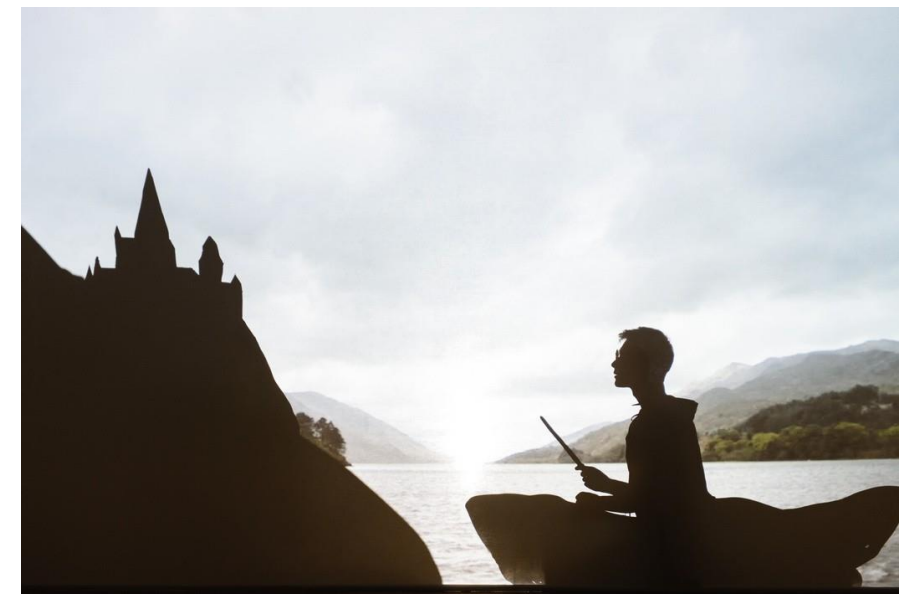

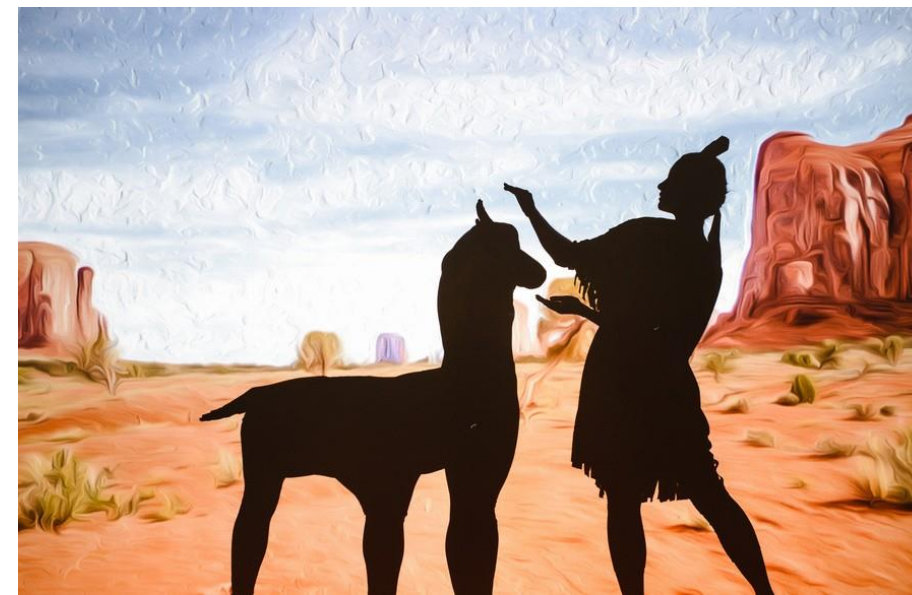

We bring our ideas to life with the help of the game of shadows and we invite you to this mysterious and illusory world!

ABOUT THE SHOW "KINGDOM OF SHADOW"

Imagine there is a world that is hidden from the mankind's eyes. A world where everything is made with an illusory and intricate game of shadows...Kingdom of shadows! A girl finds a way into this world by chance and goes on an unforgettable journey with Shadow. He shows her how the world was created, then they travel to different countries, and finally get into different fairy tales. Spectators will see the Ancient World (Egypt, Antiquity), sketches from the life of different people (Europe, America) and magic fairy tales (Harry Potter, European fairy tales, Frozen).

ABOUT THE SHOW "KINGDOM OF SHADOW"

The duration of the show can be different: 80 minutes with one intermission (40 min each part) or 65-70 minutes without any intermission.

In the show, apart from the scenes of the plastic shadow theatre, there are choreographic scenes: artists in spectacular costumes appear in front of the audience which makes the show even more stunning and exclusive.

The show will be interesting for both adults and children 6+ years.
